The Chef, The Winemaker and a Table for Ten - Lunch Series

Hunter Valley Wine & Food Month - June 2010

Robert Molines from the chefs hatted alfresco dining venue - Bistro Molines, will host a series of intimate lunches for a private table of 10 guests to celebrate Hunter Valley Wine & Food Month. Every Saturday in June and the first Saturday in July, a winemaker from one of Mount View's boutique wineries will host the table, while Robert engages in casual conversation with the guests, as mouth-watering cuisine is prepared and served at the table.

Canapés followed by a 4 course lunch will be matched by fine wines especially selected by the winemaker of the day. Participating wineries starting on June 05 onwards are; Mount View Estate, Briar Ridge Vineyard, Saddlers Creek, Petersons with Savannah Estate and Tallavera Grove Vineyard.

This is a very special wine and food experience at a stunning location and would be perfect for a group of friends, family or work colleagues or meeting up with like-minded people.

Cost is $125pp - all inclusive or $120 per person for a total booking of 10 - bookings are essential.

An eclectic mix of private, self contained accommodation is nearby giving guests the opportunity to take time out and enjoy a weekend in Wine Country. Mount View is just 2 hours from Sydney CBD or less than 1 hour from Newcastle and the Central Coast.

Go to www.mountview.biz for more info or call Bistro Molines at Tallavera Grove, Mount View on 4990 9553 or email dine@bistromolines.com.au - book early to avoid disappointment.
